CONFIRMATION SERVICE

Saturday, May 17, 2025, 2:00 pm

Worship Leader: Pastor Richard Krause

Preacher: Pastor Timothy Gerbing

Prayer: This day brings joy into our hearts and homes, dear Lord. We thank you for the covenant you made with us and our children in Holy Baptism. You have brought our sons and daughters through the study of your Word, to know the meaning of their baptism, to stand before the world and confess your name as the only true God, in whom we have life eternal. You have blessed us with Christian homes. For all of this we thank you. We are grateful also for our church, our congregation, the pastors and teachers who have helped us in teaching our children your Word. Equip us all our days for the demands of a bold and constant Christian witness. Renew us each day, along with our children, in our baptismal grace, so that we honor your holy name and praise it forever, O Holy Trinity. Amen.

INVOCATION

P: We worship in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: I tell you the truth, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit.

C: Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit. (John 3:5,6)

P: Surely we were sinful at birth, sinful from the time our mothers conceived us. (Psalm 51:5)

C: But we were washed, we were sanctified, we were justified in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. (1 Corinthians 6:11)

To avoid disruptions, please silence your cell phones before worship.

P: As baptized children of God, we confess our sins.

C: Holy and merciful Father,
I confess that I am by nature sinful
and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words, and actions.
I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good;
for this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity.
But I am truly sorry for my sins,
and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray:
Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

P: Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, and to present her to himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless. (Ephesians 5:25-27) Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

PRAYER

P: Lord Jesus, we are gathered as your flock to worship you. Cause the Word we hear to take root in our hearts and bear fruit in our lives. Strengthen us in the knowledge of your truth that we obey your call and follow you all the days of our lives.

C: Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON     Isaiah 63: 7-14

I will tell of the kindnesses of the Lord,
the deeds for which he is to be praised,
according to all the Lord has done for us—
yes, the many good things
he has done for Israel,
according to his compassion and many kindnesses.

He said, “Surely they are my people,
children who will be true to me”;
and so he became their Savior.

In all their distress he too was distressed,
and the angel of his presence saved them.

In his love and mercy he redeemed them;
he lifted them up and carried them
all the days of old.

Yet they rebelled
and grieved his Holy Spirit.
So he turned and became their enemy
and he himself fought against them.

Then his people recalled the days of old,
the days of Moses and his people—
where is he who brought them through the sea,
with the shepherd of his flock?

Where is he who set
his Holy Spirit among them,
who sent his glorious arm of power
to be at Moses' right hand,
who divided the waters before them,
to gain for himself everlasting renown,
who led them through the depths?
Like a horse in open country,
they did not stumble;
like cattle that go down to the plain,
they were given rest by the Spirit of the Lord.

This is how you guided your people
to make for yourself a glorious name.

EPISTLE LESSON      1 Peter 2: 19-25

For it is commendable if someone bears up under the pain of unjust suffering because they are conscious of God. But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God. To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps.

“He committed no sin,
and no deceit was found in his mouth.”

When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly. “He himself bore our sins” in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; “by his wounds you have been healed.” For “you were like sheep going astray,” but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

SERMON TEXT John 6: 66-69

From this time many of his disciples turned back and no longer followed him.

"You do not want to leave too, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve.

Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and to know that you are the Holy One of God."

SERMON THEME "YOU DON'T WANT TO LEAVE TOO, DO YOU?"

RITE OF CONFIRMATION

P: Brothers and sisters in Christ, our Lord Jesus said to his disciples: “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

In obedience to the Lord’s command, you have been baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. You have been taught the precious truths of the Christian faith as confessed by the Evangelical Lutheran Church. You know what God has given you by his grace and what he expects of you as his dear child. You now have the privilege of receiving the Lord’s body and blood in the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

You are here to make a public profession of your Christian faith. The apostle Paul, writing to the Romans, said: “If you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved. Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

Therefore, lift up your hearts to the God of all grace and joyfully answer these questions.

Do you this day, in the presence of God and of this congregation, acknowledge that in Baptism, God gave you forgiveness of sins, new life, and salvation? (I do.)

Do you reject the devil along with all his lies and empty promises? (I do.)

Do you believe in God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit?

(spoken by the confirmands)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

P: Do you believe all the books of the Bible to be the inspired Word of God? (I do.)

Do you believe that the teaching of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, as you have learned to know it from Luther's Small Catechism, is faithful and true to the Word of God? (I do.)

Do you intend to continue steadfast in this teaching and to endure all things, even death, rather than fall away from it? (I do, and I ask God to help me.)

Do you intend to conform all your life to the teachings of God's Word, to be faithful in the use of the Word and sacrament, and in faith and action remain true to God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—as long as you live? (I do, and I ask God to help me.)

Since it is God alone who enables us both to will and to do his good pleasure, it is right for us, dear friends in Christ, to call on him for these confirmands, that he would graciously complete the good work which he has begun in them. Let us pray.

Lord Jesus, author and perfecter of our faith, in mercy you joined these brothers and sisters to your Church when they were born again of water and the Spirit. In mercy you taught them your saving truth. Grant that they may offer themselves as living sacrifices to you as their spiritual act of worship. Transform them by the renewing of their minds so that they will not conform to the pattern of this world. Help all of us live in love and harmony with one another and to work together in serving you. Keep us united in Spirit, and bring us at last to your eternal kingdom, where you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Today Is Confirmation! This year twelve students were examined in the fundamental teachings of Scripture on May 15. Today they make vows of faithfulness to their Savior and receive the Lord's Supper for the first time. The students confirmed this year are: Natalie Bauer, Silas Cera, Abbey Demitros, Liam Fladhammer, Kendall Ford, Adalyn Haeuser, Natalia Hammel, Brody Honl, Luke Kopec, Jayne Lindee, Erin Moloney, and Noah Uitz. Take the time to encourage our students and welcome them as newly confirmed members of our church. Please keep these young people in your prayers.

The Lord's Supper: Friends, you are welcome in the name of the Lord, who has done great things for us! One of those great things is the giving of his body and blood in Holy Communion. Because of the Bible's witness that true faith in Christ is central to its common reception, we kindly ask that visitors who desire to commune speak with one of the pastors before the service.

 Offerings can be deposited into the labeled boxes in the gathering area. To make a one-time or recurring gift online, scan the QR code, or use the "Online Giving" link at the homepage of our church website, www.christpewaukee.org (or visit <https://secure.myvanco.com/YK3N/home>).

Available Services: Our ushers are glad to provide large print bulletins for those who need them. Our hearing induction loop system is functional throughout the sanctuary and works through the T coil function of hearing aid apparatuses. Restrooms are in the coatroom area and the parents' room. Parents are welcome to use the parents' room in the corner of our sanctuary. You can hear and view the service there. You will find a diaper changing station in the parents' room and in both restrooms located in the coatroom area.

Call Update: On May 1 we called Pastor Scott Henrich of Sheperd of the Hills Lutheran Church in Knoxville, Tennessee to be our outreach pastor. Please pray for him in the coming weeks as he deliberates this call. Any questions may be directed to Pastor Richard Krause.

An Explanation of a Lutheran Confirmation Service

The Procession: The confirmands walking down the aisle at the beginning of the service is symbolic. They are not walking into an ordinary building. They are entering a place where, in a few minutes, they will confess their faith in God. They are entering into God's infinitely holy presence. Their actions show respect and humility.

The White Robe: The white robes worn by the confirmands are symbolic. They are a reminder of Christian holiness and sinlessness in the sight of our Creator. Every Lutheran confirmand knows that such sinlessness is not obtained by anything that he or she does. The confirmands know from personal experience, as well as from Scripture, that every imagination of the thoughts of their hearts is only evil. They know there is no natural goodness within them. They cannot become sinless. But, by God's grace and mercy, they learned that Christ bore their sins in his own body on the cross; that he was wounded for their transgressions; that he was bruised for their iniquities; that the chastisement, which produced their peace, was upon him; and that with his stripes they are healed (Isaiah 53). Those who believe that Jesus Christ is their Savior, who cleansed them from all their sins, realize that the white robe is a symbol of their righteousness before God.

The Bended Knee: When the confirmands kneel in the presence of God, they are thereby proclaiming before all the world that God is above them, that they are his own, and that his precepts are the principles by which he wishes to direct their lives.

The Laying on of the Hands (The Blessing): The pastor lays his hand upon each confirmand's head and solemnly blesses each. Then, he proclaims a Scripture passage for each confirmand, which is designed to guide the individual Christian through the future. Thus, the confirmand is graced with both a general and a specific blessing pronounced by the pastor in the name of the church

The Handclasp (The Promise): Such loyalty to Christ, both in what a person believes and in the way he or she lives, must remain constant, even unto death. The individual is already a Christian at the time of his or her Confirmation. But this means nothing unless they remain Christians until their lives are finished here on earth. Only those, "who stand firm to the end will be saved" (Matthew 24:13). This is what the handclasp symbolizes in the presence of God and the assembled witnesses. It is a pledge of their promise to renounce the devil and all his works and all his ways, to remain true to the teachings of the Evangelical Lutheran Church and to live as it becomes the Gospel of Christ all the days of their lives.
